

A Legacy of Liberty

As we gather to celebrate the Fourth of July, we're reminded of the enduring strength and spirit that built our nation.

Independence Day is more than fireworks and parades—it is a moment to reflect on the courage, resilience, and unity of those who came before us.

This year marks the 250th anniversary of the events that led to America's independence—a milestone rooted right here in New England, where the first sparks of revolution were lit. From the Boston Tea Party to the battles of Lexington and Concord, our corner of the country played a vital role in shaping a new nation.

Just a few miles from Stone Hill, the town of Lexington still echoes with the footsteps of the first patriots who stood their ground on April 19, 1775. That same spirit of bravery and conviction lives on in our community today. Many of you have served in the military, marched for civil rights, raised families during wartime, and witnessed firsthand the evolving story of our country.

Here at Stone Hill, we are surrounded by individuals who have lived through great chapters of American history. Your stories, sacrifices, and enduring love for this country are part of what makes our community so special.

On this day, we honor the ideals that continue to guide us: freedom, justice, and the belief that every voice matters. Happy Independence Day!

Andover: A Proud Past

Settled in 1646, our town was shaped by hardworking families and deep-rooted ideals. During the Revolution, Andover sent over 300 men to fight—citizens who believed in liberty and risked everything to secure it. From town meetings that echoed with debate to local farms that supported the cause, Andover's history is a testament to the everyday people who helped build a nation.

Welcome to July!

Summer is in full swing, and July at Stone Hill is packed with activities to enjoy! We're kicking things off with Red, White & Blue Baking—a sweet way to celebrate the season and connect with neighbors. We're also marking National Picnic Month with garden gatherings and a toast to summer's simple pleasures.

Friendship Day is a perfect reminder of the special bonds in our community, and Nigel the therapy dog will be back for cuddles and cheer. We'll welcome Dan Hart for live music, relax with our Pampered Hands Spa activity, and explore far-off destinations during Armchair Travels.

Need a tech hand? Device Advice is here to help, and the Shopping Shuttle is ready for easy outings. Don't miss our Evening Concerts in the Park—a lovely way to unwind and enjoy a summer evening with friends.

Here's to a joyful, memory-filled July at Stone Hill!
